

Division F Director
Angela F. Brown, ACS, ALB

Angela Brown, ACS, ALB is the Acting Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for the St. Louis Regional Health Commission. Director of Operations for the St. Louis Regional Health Commission (RHC). As the Acting CEO, Angela provides the overall direction and leadership for the RHC, an appointed body responsible for the fiscal management and allocation of more than $25 million annually to support medical care for the otherwise uninsured.

A Toastmaster since 2014, Angela is a member of Grand Center Toastmaster Club in St. Louis, Missouri. Angela has served as secretary and president of her club since joining Toastmasters.

A native of Jackson, Mississippi, Angela earned an MPH from Saint Louis University's School of Public Health, and a BS from Stillman College in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.