

Angie Breinin, ACB, ALB has been a member of Toastmasters since 2009 (starting her TM career at Sigma-Aldrich Toastmasters). She has served in several officer roles at both the club and District level, and currently serves as District 8's Program Quality Director. She is a member of two clubs, MilliporeSigma Toastmasters and Free Speakers Toastmasters. During her "day job", she is a Project Manager at MilliporeSigma, working on custom media development projects. In her spare time, she enjoys hanging out with her husband Leo and is expecting her first child in December.