

Dr. Artie Langston ACG, ALB Director Division E, District 8

Dr. Artie Langston ACG, ALB is an internationally recognized musician, musical director, and composer, and has been heard on many recordings, motion picture soundtracks, and radio and television commercials, as well as live concerts around the world. He has also taught music at several universities.

He holds a Bachelor of Music in Performance, Double Bass, from The University of Missouri, Columbia, Master of Music in Jazz Studies from Webster University, Saint Louis, and Doctor of Musical Arts in Jazz Studies from the University of Texas, Austin.

He is a PADI certified SCUBA diver, an instrument rated private pilot, has a second degree black belt in Taekwondo, and holds amateur radio license KD0GY.

A Toastmaster for 14 years, Artie is currently District 8, Division E Director, and currently serves as President of Capital Toastmasters 503, Jefferson City, MO. As Division Director, he hopes to give back to Toastmasters in return for the many benefits he has received as a member.