

Area 2 Director

Richard Radasch, Past President of Loquacious Leaders Toastmasters club of St. Louis Missouri, is a Business Process Architect for ROi, an independent subsidiary of Mercy Healthcare Network. With a background in Quality and Process Improvement methodologies, Richard leads projects to improve the efficiency of the supply chain and optimize operations.

A graduate of DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana with a degree in English Literature, Richard later studied Computer Science at Washington University in St. Louis. His work at Union Pacific Railroad and later at Anheuser Busch led him into work in Quality and Process Improvement.

A Toastmaster for over twelve years, Richard was initially a member of Anheuser Busch Toastmasters, later helping to found and grow his current club, Loquacious Leaders.

The Area 2 Director position is his first office beyond the club level, and he is eager to expand his knowledge of the Toastmasters organization and help and support the clubs in his area.
