

Cynthia Scroggins, DTM

Cynthia joined Toastmasters in 2003 in Austin, Texas and is currently a member of Capital 503 Toastmasters Club. She has served in all toastmasters' club roles, Speechcraft facilitator, Area Governor, Division Governor, District Conference Chair twice, and Pathways Guide and Ambassador. She currently serves as a Volunteer in Corrections (VIC) at the Jefferson City Correctional Facility and has served since 2006.

Cynthia is a licensed minister, Adjunct Professor, Human Resources Director, teacher, facilitator, coach, and mentor. She has over 19 years teaching professional development and management skills in private, public and Non-profit organizations. Currently, Cynthia is completing her Doctoral Degree (ABD) in Educational Leadership and is a Doctoral student in Theology. She is a United States Army retiree after 22 years of service. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, traveling and spending time with family and friends.