

Ellen Kirchdoerfer, DTM, has been a member of the High Noon Toastmasters Club since August 2012. She is currently the Vice President of Education and served in several other club officer roles in the past. She also served at the district level as Division C Director in 2018-2019 when the division achieved President's Distinguished. She achieved the DTM education award in July, 2019.

Ellen graduated from Southeast Missouri State University with a Business Administration degree and held several leadership roles during her careers in banking and technology service industries. She is now growing her own family business in real estate investment.

Ellen is a lifelong resident of Southeast Missouri where she spends most of her free time with her husband, children and grandchildren. Her Number 1 goal is to be "The Best Mimi Ever."