

Veleria Boaten, ACB, ALB is a charter member of Toast of WU Toastmasters Club. Toast of WU celebrated their 5th anniversary on April 2019. During her membership, she has served as Vice President of Public Relations, Vice President of Education and, club President. Veleria is an IT Project Manager at Washington University in St. Louis. She is married to Kwabena and also also the mother of their three sons. Besides Toastmasters and work, she is reliving college applications, being a sophomore in high school and going through 3rd grade all at the same time. She is honored to serve Area 15 and excited to help the district thrive during this club year.