

ALICE B GANDER

Biography

Alice Gander grew up on a farm between Palmyra and Monroe City, MO. She graduated from the University of Texas Austin with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering. Her thirty-one-year career at Michelin Tire included engineering, process improvement, supply chain management, production management, HR systems, e-business and organizational design roles. While working for Michelin, she lived in Greenville, SC and Clermont-Ferrand France. She retired in 2011 and returned to the family farm in Missouri where she spent five years restoring the hundred year old farm house her family has owned since 1944.

Alice stays busy now with family history, entertaining family and friends, and keeping active in the community. Toastmasters has offered her an opportunity to meet many talented and interesting people. She enjoys mentoring others and learning from everyone.
