

Susan M. Berkbigler – Area 16 Area Director

Susan joined Toastmasters as a member of Money-Talks Club 2075 on June 1, 2008. Since that time, she has had the privilege of serving as Secretary (8 times), VP of Public Relations (4 times), VP Education (3 times), President (2 times), Sergeant At Arms (1 time). She has earned the following Education Awards: Competent Leader, Competent Communicator, Advanced Leader Bronze, Advanced Communicator Bronze, Advanced Communicator Silver, Advanced Communicator Gold.

In her free time, Susan volunteers as Junior Achievement teacher, PedaltheCause Rider (helping to find a cure for cancer) and as an active parishioner of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque Catholic Church.

She retired after 14 years from Edward Jones as Programmer/Analyst on July 10, 2020. She also working for 18 years at Boeing Aircraft plus other companies as she moved to Kansas City and Richmond, VA with her family.

She has earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Washington University in Systems and Data Processing.

She is married for 53 years to Bill Berkbigler and is immensely proud of her two daughters, Kelly Ross, M.D. WU Physician and Kerry Berkbigler Ayers of Capital One in Richmond, VA. She has triplet grandchildren Megan, Lauren and Connor Ross who are attending Washington University and Indiana University. She has two grandchildren living in Richmond, VA – Weston Ayers and Adeline Ayers.

Susan is extremely excited to be a member of the District 8 Leadership Team.