

Debbie Young Bio

Debbie Young has been a member of the South County Toastmasters Club since 2016. She has held leadership positions at both the club and district level. She credits Toastmasters with making her a more confident speaker and leader, and wants to help other clubs inspire their members. Debbie has an MBA from Saint Louis University, is a project manager, and works in healthcare IT.