

Janet Long Bio

Janet Long is an author, educational content developer, an expert on second language acquisition, and an instructor of Spanish and English as foreign languages. She has worked with universities in the United States, Indonesia, and China to develop language education programs, websites, and materials in multiple languages.

Janet joined Toastmasters in 2018 while working at St. Charles Community College. She became a member of Cave Springs Toastmasters, a community club in St. Charles, MO and served as club President from 2019-2020. She has completed level 5 of the Dynamic Leadership Pathway. Toastmasters has given her the opportunity to improve her speaking and leadership skills, as well as grow personally and professionally.

She spends her free time travelling, going for long hikes, and learning to cook new things.
