

District Mission and Purpose

The district mission is to build new clubs and support all clubs in achieving excellence.

The district purpose is to enhance the quality and performance and extend the network of the member clubs of Toastmasters International within the boundaries of the district, thereby offering greater numbers of people the opportunity to benefit from the Toastmasters education program by:

- ▶ Focusing on the critical success factors as specified by the district educational and membership goals.
- ▶ Ensuring that each club effectively fulfills its responsibilities to its individual members.
- ▶ Providing effective training and leadership-development opportunities for club and district officers.

Team Composition

Name the members of the district's core team.

Name the members of the district's extended team.

Values

Toastmasters International's values are integrity, respect, service and excellence. These are values worthy of a great organization and should be incorporated as anchor points in every decision made within the organization. Toastmasters' values provide a means of guiding and evaluating the organization's operations, planning and envisioned future.

What are the district's core values?

Team Operating Principles

What principles does the team hold? (These principles might include trust, safe learning, collaboration, etc.)

Potential Obstacles

What obstacles will the team have to consider when strategizing? (These might include conflicting personal commitments, distance, unresolved conflict, etc.)

Meeting Protocol

In general, how will the team process tasks? (For example, consider how often to meet or call, what the team's meeting practices will be, etc.)

Team Interactions and Behavioral Norms

How will decisions be made?

What will be the team's method of communication? Determine the team's first preference, second preference and so on.

What will the communication parameters be? Parameters might include whether the team communicates by phone or email, whether the team sets up a weekly conference call or how often team members can expect to communicate.

How will the team resolve differences of opinion?

How will the team support one another?

How will the team ensure equitable participation when completing activities?

How will team members be held accountable for their responsibilities?

How will the core team and extended teams be recognized for their efforts?

Additional Goals

Answer the same types of questions to reach each additional district goal. Additional goals might have to do with alignment challenges, new leadership opportunities or better service to members. Where else is there room for improvement in the district?

Goal

What specific, measurable, attainable and relevant additional goal can the district meet? (An example of a goal is to add one new division and three new areas.)

Situation Analysis

What is the current situation in the district? Do members understand how to achieve success? Does the district have special challenges? (One situation might be that areas and divisions have reached their maximum capacity causing service to the members to suffer and limiting leadership opportunities.)

Strategy

What actions will the district take? What has worked in the past? What has not? What new programs or incentives could the district implement? How will the district promote existing programs? How have other districts been successful? What could the district do to stretch this goal? (The strategy might include actions, such as assigning a district alignment committee to determine best options for realignment and collaborating with the district nominating committee to identify leadership opportunities.)
