

David Kincade Bio

David is an Optician by trade, and is serving as a corporate trainer for a nationwide optical company based in the St. Louis area. David has been involved with Toastmasters for 10 years, serving in all club offices. He has been a Speech Competitor in several contest cycles, Achieving several top three finishes at the District 8 competitions. His service to District 8 has been as Division C Director, District Logistics Manager, and now District Director. David is proud of the fun fact that he has not missed a District Conference since he joined Toastmasters.