

Erik Pronovost Bio

Erik Pronovost is the current Area 2 Director and the President of RGA Toastmasters, a President's Distinguished Club. Previously, Erik served as Vice President Education, Vice President Membership, and Secretary for RGA Toastmasters. Erik completed the path Presentation Mastery (PM5) on Pathway and is currently working on the Level 5 of the path Persuasive Influence (PI4) and on the Level 1 of the path Motivational Strategies.

Erik Pronovost is Actuary, Structuring for the Marketing and Transaction Solutions department of RGA Global Financial Solutions (GFS). He works primarily on designing new solutions and deal structures for clients in support of business development opportunities. Prior to his current role, Erik worked in Pricing, where he priced large, asset-intensive transactions and assisted with the creation of Langhorne Re by developing an acquisition pricing model and reinsurance process involving multiple regulatory jurisdictions. Langhorne Re is a joint venture between Renaissance Re and RGA, forming a global reinsurer targeting large in-force life and annuity blocks.

Erik is also the Vice Chairman of the Taxation Section of the Society of Actuary (SOA). Previously, Erik served as the Secretary. Erik was a presenter at the SOA webcast Taxation for M&A and Reinsurance, where he illustrated the impact of taxation on transactions involving offshore entities under different accounting regimes. Erik was also a presenter on Actuvision, where he educated the audience about some strategic uses for reinsurance.

Erik received both a bachelor's and a master's degree in mathematics from Université Laval in Quebec, Canada. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA); a Chartered Enterprise Risk Actuary (CERA), and is a Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA) Charterholder.
