

Charise Manor Bio

Charice L. Manor is a member of Scott Toastmasters Club. She immediately joined after visiting during the club's virtual open house in the Fall of 2020. She is most grateful for the growth she has experienced as a member. She has held the roles of Sergeant at Arms and Club President. She placed first in her club speech contest, first in Area contest and placed third in the Division C speech contest in the Spring 2022. During this TM year 2021-2022, she transitioned her club from the virtual environment to holding hybrid club meetings. Her club achieved the honor of Presidential Distinguished Club this year. Although she lead the charge, she is grateful for having a strong supportive executive team and club.

Charice holds a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing from Virginia State University and Masters in Business Administration from the University of Phoenix. She works as a contract specialist with a government Internet Technology organization. She is an entrepreneur and operator of a faith based nonprofit called God's Gurl. She is a wife and mom who enjoys making memories with her friends and family.

Charice is dedicated to doing all that she can and sharing what she knows.
