

Rahul Joglekar

Rahul is an accomplished leader with 28 years experience spanning Financial Services, Retail, Manufacturing, and Engineering industries. He has rich expertise in business strategy, P&L management, global team leadership, C-suite relationship building, innovation, mentoring, consulting, and public speaking.

Rahul joined Toastmasters in 2021 and was elected Vice President Public Relations in Jan 2022. Their club has tripled in size ever since he took on this role. Rahul is active in public speaking sphere and in volunteering. His passion is to positively impact lives of others through his insightful and motivational stories & messages.

Rahul has public speaking experience on topics spanning Servant Leadership, Vision & Purpose, Emotional Intelligence, Mindfulness, Innovation, Growth Strategy, and Change Management. He holds an MBA in Marketing, and an Electronics Engineering degree. He is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP®).

He loves spending quality time with family (wife and two daughters). His hobbies include networking, astronomy, music, singing, traveling, scenic drives, hiking, “attempted” cooking, and movies (SciFi & comedy).