

Annetta Works Salley is an Accountability Coach and Self-Care Advocate. Annetta served in the United States Army Veteran as a Programmer. Today, she continues her work as an Intergenerational Mentor, Community Builder, and Community Care and Support Leader.

Annetta's education, training, along with her community and life experiences serve and support the areas of Christian Education, Women's Wellness, Community Building, and DEIA.

Annetta's "heart work", iCelebrateU365, started as a personal hobby and morphed into an opportunity to connect and purposefully engage with multi-cultural women around the world. Annetta thrives in helping women create safe spaces to heal, live well, and celebrate in their sacred places, without apology. Annetta's vision is to create a living legacy of authentic conversations for living well and celebrating life without apology.
