

Janet R. Martin

Janet R. Martin is a multi-talented, internationally award-winning singer, songwriter, and author. With a diverse background that includes keynote speaking, stand-up comedy, improv, radio personality, and news directing.

Holding a master's degree in organizational management and boasting decades of experience in team collaboration and customer service, Janet has perfected the art of inspiring individuals and organizations alike. She leverages her extensive expertise to help others enhance their communication skills, increasing engagement, productivity, and performance.

Janet co-authored the award-winning “Breaking the Silence: Voices of Survivors” released earlier this year. She is also recording her 3rd studio album, and the first faith-based album to be released this fall! You can find her music on YouTube, Spotify, iTunes, and more! <http://janetmartinmusic.com>
<http://janetmartinspeaks.com>

Janet has been a Toastmasters member since 2022. She held the VP of Education position for her club during that time. That same year, she competed in the Humorous speech contest and took 2nd place in the District 8 contest in 2023. Janet became the Area 3 Director that year, and this year has taken the role of VP of Public Relations in her club as well as appointed Public Relations Manager for the district.

Audiences can expect a one-of-a-kind journey filled with entertainment, wisdom, and inspiration whenever Janet takes the spotlight. Her dynamic performances energize and uplift all who are fortunate enough to be in attendance.